

George Joseph Kazi, an advocate of the High Court of Tanzania, holds a Masters in Maritime Law from Oslo University, Norway, a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Dares Salaam, Diploma and Certificate in Law from I.D.M Mzumbe (now Mzumbe University).

The Registrar serves as The Chief Administrator of the Judiciary and Accounting officer of the Judiciary with the following functions;

- Perform judicial functions vested in the Registrar by law.
- Exercise powers vested in the office of the Registrar by virtue of any law or regulation and give effect to the directions of the Chief Justice
- Responsible for the efficient management of the day to day operations and administration of Human Resources in the Judicial Service.
- Plan, prepare, implement and monitor the budget and collect, receive and account for revenue.
- Maintenance of accounts of the Judiciary.
- Prepare reports and proposals on administration issues.
- In charge of support services in the Judiciary in planning, development and organization of staff etc.
- To act as the Spokes-person for the Judiciary and coordinate between the Judiciary and other organs of the Governments in Administrative affairs.
- Perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Chief Justice from time to time